

Bedminster PTO Grant Application

The Parent Teacher Organization (PTO) at Bedminster School is an organization of parents, teachers, administration, and community members who, through their commitment of time and resources, work to enhance Bedminster School's learning environment for all the students.

Please remember that all grant applications are reviewed at the PTO Board meetings ONCE a month

Teacher Grant Application Procedure:

- This form is designed for ALL GRANTS (class, grade level and assemblies)
- All completed applications must be reviewed and approved by administration before coming to the PTO Board. The PTO will subsequently review for potential funding.
- Grant applications may be submitted at any time during the school year with a final submission deadline of June 1.
- Upon review by the PTO Executive Board, the requesting Teacher/Department/Grade may be asked to present the request to the PTO Membership for review/approval.
- Items granted by the PTO are gifts to Bedminster Township School and shall remain resident in the school.

Please Note: the PTO does not provide grants to support the individuals, political causes, candidates, or organizations whose primary purpose is to influence legislation; or religious organizations.
